

LIMITED EDITION HENRY HUDSON QUADRICENTENNIAL SCARF PRESENTED BY THE SOCIETY OF DAUGHTERS OF HOLLAND DAMES

The Society of Daughters of Holland Dames is pleased to present our Limited Edition Quadricentennial scarf to commemorate the 400th anniversary of the arrival of Henry Hudson in New York Harbor in 1609. This elegant 35-inch square silk twill scarf has an outer border of linked yellow tulips on an orange ground. Three of the corners have a stylized tulip design taken from the magnificent stained glass window depiction of Henry Hudson's ship, the "Half Moon", on board which Hudson explored the waters around New York. The Society of the Daughters of Holland Dames, Descendants of the Ancient and Honorable Families of New Netherland, presented this window to the New-York Historical Society in 1909 in memory of their ancestors who had settled in New Amsterdam. The fourth corner of the scarf also holds the insignia of the Holland Dames, a crowned, golden lion rampant, holding a gold sword in his right paw and a gold scroll in his left paw, on a blue background, with a gold ribbon at his feet bearing the name "Daughters of Holland Dames". Over the lion's head is the Dutch royal crown. Antique blue and white Delft tiles depicting scenes of everyday life in New Amsterdam are set at angles above the four corners of the scarf. A graceful scallop design and wreath of tulips frame the center medallion containing the Society's seal and founding date of 1895. It is punctuated by four Dutch roof-gable and window designs. One of these roof designs contains the small image of a beaver, a symbol of one of the more important business ventures of the early Dutch settlers in New Amsterdam. This elegant 35-inch square silk twill scarf was designed by noted New York fashion designer Marisol Deluna.
